

Research and Development Tax Relief

Is your company missing out on valuable tax rebates?

Is the organisation a small or medium sized company which is required to complete a corporation tax return

Does the company carry out R&D?

Or

Is the company developing or improving the technology behind its products, processes and services?

Or

Is the company innovative?

Did the company spend at least £10,000 in the year on R&D activities?

Does the company have an interest in the intellectual property rights of the project?

If you answered yes to all the above questions your company could be entitled to an important tax relief which could lead to a cash repayment.

Even if you have not answered yes to all the questions your company may still be eligible for extra tax relief.
